Minutes of Last Meeting 2019/05/14

By Jen Tseng

This was an impressive night. We had an induction ceremony for new member, Joshua Tai. Josh is a lawyer and ever been a member of Toastmasters Club. He decided to back to Toastmasters Club after joined our meeting. Welcome aboard, Josh.

Tonight, Eric shared his journey of finding a job with us. He told us that he wants to work in worldwide company in the beginning, so he sought the opportunities in Hong Kong or Singapore. He also shared the online interview experience. Finally, Eric got his prospective job. Congratulations!

Lynn delivered her Ice Breaker tonight. She told us she is lucky to find a job in Airline in Dubai. This job is suitable for such person loving travel like her. She had traveled to over than 100 cities, this made many members were jealous of her.

Vincent delivered his A29 speech, the title is "How to Adapt Ourselves to This Whole New World". Vincent included his study about "I-Ching" in his speech. It was a very interesting and humorous speech, however it was a little difficult to understand the content. We enjoyed Vincent's performance of excellent speech skill.

Our club is famous, we always have many guests in every regular meeting. Tonight we had 6 guests, and they had willingness to participate table topic session. Howard was the first volunteer of the table topic, he shared his tips for learning practical English conversation. Shawn was the second volunteer, he told us his experiences which improved his English much when he worked at McDonald.

Oscar served as tonight's language evaluator, he picked up some vocabularies and explained the meaning to us in humorous way.
