Minutes of Last Meeting 2019/03/26

By Jen Tseng

This was a jolly night. We have 10 guests including some first-time visitors.

Tonight, new member, Sherle delivered her ice breaker bravely. Sherle has passion for joining Toastmasters and attending many activities, however she worries her English ability very much. She introduced her hometown and her interests with our members' warm encouragement. She told us that she loves travel and reading. We are looking forward to her next speech to share her experiences about travel and her thoughts about reading.

Chi Yeh delivered his second speech after transferring to Pathways. He chose a TV drama as his topic. The name of TV series is "Game of Thrones". This is a famous fantasy drama, however this is a total strange drama for some members including me.

Chi summarized his observation from this TV series into 4 parts: (1) believe yourself, (2) trust leads to confidence, (3) lead by examples, and (4) discover your strength. He thought these 4 points could help us to build good leaderships.

Maggie Hsieh shared her experience about teaching high school students to learn communication and leadership in Toastmasters' way. Maggie is so passionate person for promoting Toastmasters and helping younger to grow in Toastmasters way.

Although tonight's sequence changed due to some traffic problem, there was an induction ceremony for Valerie and Lynn. Oscar Ge served as tonight's induction officer. His humor made new members relax. Also, Oscar was the table topic master tonight. He asked 5 questions and gave guests chances to speak on the stage.

Everyone enjoyed tonight's meeting. And there was a guest wants to be our member after joined this meeting.
