Minutes of Last Meeting 2019/01/08

By Sunny Hsieh

What a wonderful night! We had 8 guests to join us in the very first meeting of Year 2019. Welcome!

We had 3 speeches tonight. In the variety session, Sean delivered a speech entitled "Controlling your fear." It began with a question: why we fear? Facing an unknown situation, it is normal reaction to worry and anxious, especially when we do a public speech. He gave us tips of PEVR to help us "look like" not being afraid. Preparation, Experience, Visualization, and Relaxation. Practice makes perfect, as we always knew. Thank you, Sean, for giving us such useful tips for improving our next speech.

Lily, in her Level 2 speech of Pathways, delivered a speech entitled "Lead by Examples." Though there are types of leading style, she prefers the one who leads with listening the opinions, taking responsibility together, and sharing the results with one another. It is totally the way how Lily leads Toastmasters as VPE and we did learn a lot from her.

Andy delivered his Level 2 speech of Pathways, entitled "Why." Why others can achieve something that you can't? What a sharp question! In a theory of golden circle, normal people tend to communicate from what, how, to why, while better communicators tend to do the reverse way. How to inspire people or to convince them is always the big WHY. Always ask you your big WHY, what motivates you, and life will find the way.

Best Speaker: Andy Chen / Lily Lee

Best Table Topic: Oscar Ge

Best Evaluator: Sunny Hsieh

Special Thanks to the helper for the first time: Eric Chen as Timer
