Minutes of Last Meeting 2019/04/09

By Sunny Hsieh

It was a meeting night of serious preparation while the atmosphere was relaxing and fun. Thank to all the staff or the heroes behind the scene and the 6 guests who shared the wonderful night with us.

We were glad to have a new member joining us. Fong, a promising young man, was inducted in this meeting. We are eager to know him more and he will give an ice break speech soon. Welcome, Fong.

From our schedule, Ching, a new member, delivered her ice breaker speech. Though she started English learning from junior high school, the same as the rest of us, not until in college did she make the first English speech on stage after inspired by the college teacher. She was a teaching assistant in cram school and urges herself to practice oral English. It's never too late to start again, especially with all the friends who learn from each other in Toastmasters.

Second speaker, Oscar, delivered his C5 speech entitled "Learning by Paying." With vivid body language, we could all see how Oscar paid on impulse due to the attractive word of the goods, which arouse the needs in his heart, such as health food and English lessons. We can relate to him because we all did the same thing once in a while. Luckily, he can always learn something, maybe a lesson or a healthier life style, from his payments. Then, it was worthy.

The third speaker, Peter, gave us an informative speech entitled "Silent killer", the hypertension. It causes many diseases, including stroke. He gave us several tips to get away from the silent killer: health weight, balance diet, cut salt, limit alcohol, exercise regularly, and monitor blood pressure. Thank you Peter for such an informative speech and it is our own responsibility to take care our own body.
