Minutes of Last Meeting (8/14)

By Sunny Hsieh

Taipei TMC FB Page

Tonight, 6 guests have come to join us. It is always delightful to encounter new friends and some of them had decided to be new member. Welcome to the big family of Taipei Toastmaster.

The first speaker, Anna Hsu, delivered her C3 speech which may be the last speech she delivered in Taipei Toastmaster in the near future. The speech entitled "Change" is about what action she took after she decided to go for Ph.D study in Hong Kong. She wrote a letter to the education authority about the problems of higher education in Taiwan and the story is published on newspaper. The support and criticism came to her but she still believed as long as people willing to take actions, things will be changed. I really admired her courage and the desire of changing the whole environment of higher education in Taiwan.

The second speaker Charles shared his "Cultural Differences" experience when he went to Canada for studying and traveling. He noticed that Asian tend to stay aside in a party while western people enjoy to be in center. He also was frightened by a Mexican female who asked him to do cheek-to-cheek kiss bye. After those experiences, he learned the differences of people around the world, to get along with others, and always to keep open minded.

The last speaker is Andy, giving his ice breaker speech. As a child grew up in a family which the parents are in bad relationship, he had a habit to review what to follow and what to avoid. He also wants to attract people's attention in humorous way, so he always presumed every situation to have humorous response. In his speech, he did show the characteristic of humor and fully-prepared. Well done! Andy. You did not only do a great job, but a splendid one.
